MARYLAND RACING?

Answer to Question 1:

Governor Eden, last Colonial Governor of Maryland and an ancestor of Anthony Eden of England, owned the famous race horse "Whynot," one of the greatest race horses of his day. Governor Eden is buried at the State House in Annapolis. Governor Bowie also owned the great race horse, "Crickmore," in the 1880's. "Czickmore" beat the famous "Hindu." Truly, horse racing is a Maryland tradition. Answer to Question 2:

The Gentiemen of the Maryland Jockey Club who operate Pimlico will tell you that two people—and two people only—pay the bills for Maryland racing. These two are the horseman who brings his horse to Pimlico and the man or woman who comes to Pimlico to witness the racing. The State of Maryland contributes no money to Maryland racing. That is why, at Pimlico, the horseman and the public come first in all considerations.

Answer to Question 3:

WHY DOES
PIMICO MAKE Racing

Quiz For Marylanders

Answer to Question 2: The Gentlemen of the Maryland Jockey Club who operate Pimlico will tell you that two people—and two people only— pay the bills for Maryland racing. These two are the horseman and the man or woman who comes to Pimlico to witness the racing. The State of Maryland contributes no money to Mary-land racing. That is why, at Pim-lico, the horseman and the public ome first in all considerations. Answer to Question 3:

Although Pimlico handles a great deal of money, Pimlico's dividends are less than two per cent. Why? Because of all the horse racing possible. Of the re-

Doctors Can Spot People Who Are Vitamin Bankrupts

The same thing is true of the troubles which result from vitamin deficiencies, which may be more or less severe, depending on how the individual vitamin budget is balanced. It is easy enough for the doctor to recognize the vitamin bankrupt. These are the people with full-blown, clear-cut deficiency diseases such as scurvy, beriberi or pellagra. beri or pellagra.

Vague Symptoms

It is a much more difficult thing to recognize the vague, widespread and milder symptoms which may result when the vitamin income is of the betwixt-and-between va-riety, neither really sufficient nor yet totally inadequate to meet the body's requirements.

Resulting evils will depend on two things: the degree of the deficiency, and the vitamins concerned.

Thus, in vatamin A deficiency, one of the first signs may be some thickening of the lining membrane over the eyebali. This thickening is called Bitot's spots. Another condition which may develop is a disturbance of the skin called hy-perkeratosis. This takes on the appearance of permanent goose flesh When these disorders are found in persons who have been using improper diets, Dr. William H. Sebrell of Bethesda, Maryland, suggests that they be treated by giving them large doses of vitamin A. Baltimore, New York Robberies Are Linked BALTIMORE, July 22. (P) Detective Capt. Henry J. Kriss disclosed today he had asked New York police for details of the armed robbery of a mystery-story writer by three men, one of whom carried by three men, one of whom carried a florist's box, reasoning the trio might be the same that held up the Century Athletic Club here July 4. Kriss pointed out that the Century club holdup also was committed by three men, and that the florist's box carried by one concealed a sawed-off shotgun.

In the New York robbery, Law-rence Wunderling and his wife. Eleanor, radio mystery-thriller ru-thor, were tied up with venetian-blind cords in their East 54th street blind cords in their East 54th street apartment, while the thieves escaped with a 60-pound metal box containing $5,000 worth of jewelry. Victims of the Century club affair have told authorities the robbers lined their victims against the wall, forced them to remove their trousers, and escaped with the contents of their pockets. YOUR CHILD'S HEALTH

So was to out for the warning signs—eaperially the tormenting, embarrassing rectal itch. Because now you can and should do something about it!

A highly effective way to deal with this ugly infection has now been made possible. It is based on the medically recognized drug known as gentian violet. This special drug is the vital ingredient in P-W, the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son.

P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms. So, if you auspect Pin-Worms in your child or yourself, get a box of JAYNE'S P-W right away, and follow the directions.

The marriage of Miss Josephine Hoffmeister, daughter of Mrs. Robert A. Hoffmeister, Bedford road, and the lefte Mr. Hoffmeister, to Robert B. Perdew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Perdew, 414 Goethe street, was performed Sunday.

The Rev. Walter Marion Michael officiated at the ceremony in Centre Street Methodist church. Mrs. Arthur A. Brill was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Marian Johnson, Washington, D. C., and Miss Emily Hamon, Hyattsville, were her bridesmaids.

William A. Hersh served as Mr. Perdew's best man and Paul Frost Perdew's best man and Paul Prost and Howard Hersh were the ushers. The bride is a graduate of Fort Hill high school and Catherman's Business school. For three years she was employed by the Prudential Life Insurance Company, this city, and for the past two years has been a student at the University of Maryland, where she is a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Allegany high school and Curtis Wright School of Technology, Los Angeles, Calif. A veteran of service in the ETO, he recently returned from Germany.

R. B. Perdew Weds Miss Hoffmeister

The marriage of Miss Josephine Hoffmeister, daughter of Mrs. Rob-ert A Hoffmeister, Bedford road, and the late Mr. Hoffmeister, to Robert B. Perdew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Perdew, 414 Goethe street, was performed Sunday.

The Rev. Walter Marion Michael officiated at the ceremony in Cen-tre Street Methodist church. Mrs. Arthur A. Brill was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Marian Johnson, Washington, D. C., and Miss Emily Hamon, Hyattsville, were her bridesmaids.

William A. Hersh served as Mr. Perdew's best man and Paul Frost and Howard Hersh were the ushers The bride is a graduate of Port Hill high school and Catherman's Business school. For three years she was employed by the Prudential Life Insurance Company, this city, and for the past two years has been a student at the University of Maryland, where she is a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Allegany high school and Curtis Wright School of Technology, Los Angeles, Calif. A veteran of service in the ETO, he recently returned from Germany.

Following the ceremony a recep tion was held at the home of Mrs Brill, Bedford road, after which the couple left for a trip through New England. Upon their return they will reside in Washington.

who would help you out for awhile by having you for a visit? It seems to me it would be a good thing to get away from your husband for a few weeks at least. Perhaps if you were able to get a rest you could regain your health sufficiently to be able to get out on your own and leave this man to his own

May Come To Senses He may, though, come to hi senses eventually, you know. After all, you have 13 years of marriage behind you.

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I am a girl of 15½, and I met a nice boy of almost 18 at a swimming sponsibility of keeping a roof over pool. He is an ex-sailor and a perfect gentleman.

But until he takes his proper repossibility of keeping a roof over your head and food in the house, I think you ought to try to go some

"As Others See Us" To Be Special Radio Feature

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD NEW YORK, July 22 — CBS is going overseas as well as stoping in this country for a special 45 minute program Tuesday night bearing the title of "As Others See Us." It's at campaign.

Global opinions of the U. S. "as leader of a new human era" will some from Canada, France, Russia, China, Mexico and England. A panel of American newspapermen in New York will comment on the solution of the care was created when a Rajah who wished to experience the joys of heaven while still on earth commanded his chief magician to build an earthly paradise.

The Frolics of NBC at 7 now is starring its feminine singer, Mar-waret Whiting, who has been in the program since January. She takes over from Johnny Desmond. The program also, in agreement with a changed format, is saluting various universities, starting with Columbia. Jerry Gray's orchestra continues in the show.

The second of the atomic energy series on CBS at 10:15 will have the acientists Dr. Harlow Shapley and J. R. Dunning in a discussion What is atomic energy?"

Anne Kulimor, conductor of sym-shonic orchestras, will grace the sodium of the Concert Time half-nour on ABC at 9. The program will run from the classics to the modern. Then Eugene Conley, young tenor, will supply the solos.
Robert Alda goes into the CBS Theater of Romance at 7:30 to perform in an abbreviated sersion of "The Petried Porest." . Then at 8 on NBC in the Grand Marquee drama series Jim Ameche's verhicle is to be "Hold It Please."

Although the summer schedule is under full network away, present indications are that it will begin to
